
BREN FUNERAL.

Leo Boren came home from Boise, Idaho, Thursday to attend the funeral of his father, which took place this afternoon in the Sixth ward meeting house. The services were presided over by Bishop Ralph Poulton. Music was furnished by the Sixth ward choir and the interment took place in the City cemetery.